

Are you interested in supporting parents and making a difference to the lives of children?

The Childhood Development Initiative (CDI) has been supporting parents and building parental capacity for over ten years through the role of Family Support Worker (Parent Carer Facilitator) in Early Learning and Care (ELC) services in the Tallaght area. Recently, our Family Support Worker (Parent Carer Facilitator) role has expanded to provision in Internation Protection Accommodation Services (IPAS). We are now seeking to appoint three additional Family Support Workers (Parent Carer Facilitators) to join our team, two of whom will work in ELC services, and one of whom will work within IPAS.

The role is key to our objective of working in partnership with parents from antenatal to six years to improve outcomes for children and families.

Benefits of working at the Childhood Development Initiative

Our people are our most valuable asset. We offer the following benefits:

- Family Friendly working hours
- Pension Scheme
- Employee Assistance Programme
- Continued Professional Development
